Sirs, This proposal seems to be more of the same thing called for by most older licensees. I had to take the code test, so should everyone else. Since the ITU no longer requires code tests they should be eliminated as a license requirement.